ISLAMABAD, July 2 (AP) — Pakistani President Pervez Musharraf on Monday rejected a direct link between al-Qaida and the bombings in Egypt, saying the attacks were the work of "terrorists" and not the organization.

Musharraf said in a televised address that he had received information from the United States and other countries that al-Qaida was involved in the bombings. He said that he had asked the United States to provide more information and that he was waiting for a response.

Musharraf said that he was not sure if al-Qaida was involved in the bombings, but he was sure that the attacks were the work of "terrorists." He said that he was not sure if the terrorists were from Pakistan, but he was sure that they were from somewhere.

For the first time in its history, the National Book Trust in the Philippines (NBT) is holding a public consultation on the proposed National Book Trust Bill. The bill, which is currently being drafted by the Department of Education (DepEd), aims to create a national book trust that will provide financial support to the publishing industry and promote the development of the book industry in the Philippines.

The NBT, which was established in 1962, is a non-profit organization that has been instrumental in promoting the development of the book industry in the Philippines. It has been a major force in the establishment of the National Book Trust in the Philippines (NBT) and the National Book Trust in the Philippines (NBT).

Group pushes Masferre as national artist

By David S. Lee

A group of artists and cultural workers are pushing for the appointment of Masferre as the National Artist of the Philippines. The group, which includes several prominent artists and cultural workers, believes that Masferre's work and contributions to the arts make him a worthy candidate for the honor.

Masferre, who is a well-known artist and cultural worker, has been a major force in the establishment of the National Book Trust in the Philippines (NBT) and the National Book Trust in the Philippines (NBT).

JOINT STATEMENT OF SUPPORT

While the major shareholders of Equitable do work with to ensure our successful operation, individuals and the public at large are our truly supportive of the bank and its Management and Staff. The Bank is operating as usual and is ready to address the banking requirements of its customers with the efficient service it has been known for. Management continues to exercise its authority which has been further reinforced by the fact that we may have conflicting views on some shareholder issues rather than we interfere in the process of resolving the same. United in our quest in the professionalism and competence of the bank's Management Team.

We believe that the bank is firmly focused on its objective of becoming 'Your Bank of Choice' - the best bank to do business with.

We take this opportunity to thank all of you for your continued support and confidence.

Redemption in Afghanistan

By Linda C. Lee

THE AMERICAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY (AMS) is sending a team of missionaries to Afghanistan to help rebuild the country after the fall of the Taliban. The team will be led by Rev. Dr. John H. Johnson, who is the president of the AMS. The team will be made up of about 10 people, including missionaries, teachers, and healthcare workers. They will be going to Afghanistan to help rebuild the country after the fall of the Taliban. The team will be going to Afghanistan to help rebuild the country after the fall of the Taliban.
